

Abdul M. Mackie has been living in Omaha since 2017 and has been a congregation member of the American Muslim Institute (AMI) since 2018. He contributes his time with AMI, Countryside Community Church Food Pantry, Kohlls Covid Vaccination program, the Tri-Faith Initiative Hope Garden and other community service projects in Omaha. Mackie is employed by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs in Lincoln, where he serves as the Education Liaison Representative for federal agencies and their training programs. He currently serves as the board secretary for AMI, and board and executive committee member of the Tri-Faith Initiative Board of Directors. He previously served on the VA's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee where he played an important role in interviewing Dr. Shareef ElNahal, Undersecretary of Veterans Affairs for Health during Arab-American Heritage Month in April of 2023.

Prior to joining the VA, he worked for the Ford Motor Company as a Human Resource Associate in both Dearborn Michigan and Buffalo New York, as well as for non-profit education and training, and social service agencies in the metropolitan Detroit area. He has a Master of Arts degree in Education from the University of Detroit-Mercy and a Bachelors of Arts degree in History from the University of Michigan- Dearborn. He was appointed to the State of Michigan Board of Counseling by Michigan Governor John M. Engler. He is a father of 3 adult children, and he is exceptionally proud of their achievements.